We have a choice of courses to help you improve your English skills in reading, writing and speaking and listening; skills you can use at home and at work. You will have the opportunity to develop your abilities and understanding which will help you feel more confident in using English in everyday life, gain confidence in speaking, listening and communicating, develop your reading level and reading comprehension and learn to write in a variety of contexts for a range of everyday uses: letters, emails, fiction, formal/informal writing.

How much will it cost me?

All these courses are fully funded for learners, meaning there is no fee to pay if you are aged 19+ and have lived in the EEA for at least 3 years and have not yet achieved a GCSE grade C/4 in English.

We provide a range of ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) courses across Cambridgeshire. Our experienced, friendly and qualified tutors can help you develop speaking, reading and writing skills you need to succeed in life and work.

How much will it cost me?

Our courses are fully funded, meaning there is no cost to pay for adults who are aged 19+, have lived in the EEA for at least 3 years and who are unemployed or low waged (earning less than £16,009.50 annual wage) and in receipt of active benefits.

Otherwise courses are co-funded which means there is a cost to pay:

English for Life and Work: £100

Reading and Writing: £110

Speaking and Listening: £160

For learners who don't meet the funding criteria you will pay the full cost:

English for Life and Work; £300

Reading and Writing: £160 each

Speaking and Listening £300
